

This letter concerns leasing. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.220. (This is a GIL.)

Dear Xxxxx:

This letter is in response to your letter dated September 20, 2006, in which you request information. We apologize for the delay in responding to your inquiry. The Department issues two types of letter rulings. Private Letter Rulings ("PLRs") are issued by the Department in response to specific taxpayer inquiries concerning the application of a tax statute or rule to a particular fact situation. A PLR is binding on the Department, but only as to the taxpayer who is the subject of the request for ruling and only to the extent the facts recited in the PLR are correct and complete. Persons seeking PLRs must comply with the procedures for PLRs found in the Department's regulations at 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.110. The purpose of a General Information Letter ("GIL") is to direct taxpayers to Department regulations or other sources of information regarding the topic about which they have inquired. A GIL is not a statement of Department policy and is not binding on the Department. See 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.120. You may access our website at www.ILTAX.com to review regulations, letter rulings and other types of information relevant to your inquiry.

The nature of your inquiry and the information you have provided require that we respond with a GIL. In your letter you have stated and made inquiry as follows:

An employee of ours recently relocated from Illinois to New York and took with him an automobile that is registered in ABC's name.

Sales tax was paid in full at the time we entered into the lease for the vehicle, however New York is also seeking payment of sales tax on the remaining lease payments. Therefore we are in the position of having to pay sales tax twice.

New York stipulates that they will refund duplicate tax payments if we can produce a letter from the other taxing authority (Illinois in this case) indicating that sales taxes are collected on the full value of an automobile at the time a lease is entered into and they will not be refunded even if the car is transferred out of state in the middle of the lease.

I called your Business Hotline and was informed that if I faxed you this letter you will in turn send a letter stating what is in the above paragraph. Please fax the letter to #. If you cannot fax it, please mail it to my attention at ABC using the address that appears below.

If you need additional information please contact me. Thank you for our assistance in this matter.

DEPARTMENT'S RESPONSE:

The State of Illinois taxes leases differently for Retailers' Occupation Tax and Use Tax purposes than the majority of other states. For Illinois sales tax purposes, there are two types of leasing situations: conditional sales and true leases.

A conditional sale is usually characterized by a nominal or one dollar purchase option at the close of the lease term. Stated otherwise, if lessors are guaranteed at the time of the lease that the leased property will be sold, this transaction is considered to be a conditional sale at the outset of the transaction, thus making all receipts subject to Retailers' Occupation Tax.

A true lease generally has no buy out provision at the close of the lease. If a buy out provision does exist, it must be a fair market value buy out option in order to maintain the character of the true lease. Lessors of tangible personal property under true leases in Illinois are deemed end users of the property to be leased. See the enclosed copy of 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.220. As end users of tangible personal property located in Illinois, lessors owe Use Tax on their cost price of such property. The State of Illinois imposes no tax on rental receipts. Consequently, lessees incur no tax liability.

As stated above, in the case of a true lease, the lessors of the property being used in Illinois would be the parties with Use Tax obligations. The lessors would either pay their suppliers, if their suppliers were registered to collect Use Tax, or would self-assess by remitting the tax directly to the Department. If the lessors already paid taxes in another state with respect to the acquisition of the tangible personal property, they would be exempt from Use Tax to the extent of the amount of such tax properly due and paid in such other state. See subsection (a)(3) of the enclosed copy of 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.310.

Under Illinois law, lessors may not "pass through" their tax obligation to the lessees as taxes. However, lessors and lessees may make private contractual arrangements for a reimbursement of the tax to be paid by the lessees. If lessors and lessees have made private agreements where lessees agree to reimburse lessors for the amount of the tax paid, then lessees are obligated to fulfill the terms of the private contractual agreements.

The above guidelines are applicable to all true leases of tangible personal property in Illinois except for automobiles leased under terms of one year or less, which are subject to the Automobile Renting Occupation and Use Tax found at 35 ILCS 155/1 et seq. There are also some limited exceptions to the general rule described in the preceding paragraphs. There is an exemption from Retailers' Occupation Tax for sales of tangible personal property to lessors who lease that property to governmental bodies under leases of one year or longer. See the enclosed copy of 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.2012. In addition, the sale of computers and communications equipment and equipment used in the diagnosis, analysis, or treatment of hospital patients is exempt when sold to lessors who lease that property under leases of one year or longer with hospitals to whom the Department has issued a tax exemption identification number. See the enclosed copy of 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.2011.

I hope this information is helpful. If you require additional information, please visit our website at www.ILTAX.com or contact the Department's Taxpayer Information Division at (217) 782-3336. If you are not under audit and you wish to obtain a binding PLR regarding your factual situation, please submit a request conforming to the requirements of 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.110 (b).

Very truly yours,
